

Complaints

Brighton Bank has not received written comments from the public for the current year, nor the two previous calendar years, that specifically relates to the bank's performance in helping to meet community credit needs.